

TAKE THE ANONYMOUS SURVEY AND...

TELL Us What You Think!

March 1-31, 2017

TEACHERS & ADMINISTRATORS:

The TELL Kentucky Survey is your chance to inform school, district and state education improvement planning processes. TELL education leaders what you need to do your jobs well.

"The 2017 TELL Kentucky Survey helps ensure we are supporting our teachers and providing them opportunities to thrive," said Commissioner of Education Stephen Pruitt. "Teaching conditions directly relate to student learning conditions. When our teachers succeed, Kentucky's children succeed. I encourage every teacher and administrator to participate in this year's survey."

ANONYMOUS ACCESS CODES: The individual letters with access codes will be delivered to schools, via the U.S. Postal Service.

HELP DESK: During the four week survey window, the Help Desk answers all your questions, including what to do if you lost or never received a confidential access code. Contact the Help Desk via toll free phone (M-F) or email throughout the four week survey window.

TELL

TEACHING,
EMPOWERING,
LEADING AND LEARNING

Kentucky

www.tellkentucky.org

Commissioner Pruitt wants to hear directly from every certified educator in Kentucky's schools! Let's break our 2015 record-setting response rate of 89%.

The TELL Kentucky data have become an integral source of information for school, district and school improvement planning. For details on the many ways the 2015 data have been used across the Commonwealth, please visit www.tellkentucky.org.

Helpdesk Phone: 866-301-2454 ext. 15
Helpdesk Email: helpdesk@tellkentucky.org

Visit www.tellkentucky.org for more details!

